Panchayats to hold protest over admin units

OUR CORRESPONDENT SUNDERBANI: The residents of Panchayats Seia, Devak, Athal, Badrai and Nala falling under Tehsil Sunderbani have decided to hold protest against the step motherly treatment being meted to them in the creation of new administrative units.
The residents held a meeting and formed an 11-member core committee in which ZEO (Retd) Satpal was elected as Coordinator besides Panchs and Sarpanchs of the said villages are the members of the committee.
The newly formed committee expressed strong resentment against the State Government for ignoring the said Panchayats in the formation of new administrative units as no Tehsils, no Niabats and no community development status being given to the said villages. The committee has decided to hold protest against the government at Sunderbani on 5th February, 2014.

Newly elected members of core committee at Sunderbani.

The committee has also decided to start series of protest against the government till the demands are met. Sarpanch, Om

Teachers Forum resent delay in redressal of problems

STATE TIMES NEWS JAMMU: J and K Teachers Forum while discussing issues of fraternity in a meeting held under presidency of Abdul Qayoom Wani on Wednesday expressed dissatisfaction over delay in solving pressing issues of employees working in department. Particularly, confirmation of EVs, inclusion of five years service in favour of RRTs and ReTS transfer policy and delay in promotion of dropped out lecturers and headmasters. Forum also expressed dismay and resented strongly over delay in filling up of 200 vacant pots of principals.

Congress workers welcome additional Niabat to Miran Sahib

OUR CORRESPONDENT RS PURA: Congress Party workers on Wednesday expressed happiness on being given CD Block and additional Niabat to Miran Sahib at a function in which MLC B.R Kudal was Chief Guest. A rally was also taken out in the town which was participated by Congress leader Darshan Raina and party workers in strength. Kundal appreciated steps of government in this direction.
