Nepotism by Abdullah dynasty destroyed place in J&K: Yudhvir

The state of Jammu and Kashmir (J&K) has been traditionally known for its political and social issues, with the Abdullah dynasty holding significant influence in the region. In this context, Yudhvir, a prominent political figure, has expressed his views on the nepotism practiced by the Abdullah dynasty, which he perceived as detrimental to the state's development and governance. Yudhvir's statements reflect the sentiments of many who believe that nepotism hinders the execution of effective policies and undermines the democratic process in the region.
