Indian forces giving befitting response to frustrated Pakistan: Gov

■ STATE TIMES NEWS
JAMMU: Jammu and Kashmir Governor Satya Pal Malik on Saturday said Indian forces are giving a befitting response to Pakistan which is "frustrated" because it is not able to push "infiltrators".
Malik expressed happiness over the successful conduct of Panchayat elections in the state and said despite attempts by Pakistan and terrorists to vitiate the atmosphere here there is complete peace in the valley.
"Our forces are responding appropriately to any provocation but the news does not come here. Pakistan is frustrated because it is not able to push infiltrators. It (Pakistan) was against the Panchayat polls and is unhappy over its successful conclusion," Malik told reporters on the sidelines of a function here.
Speaking on the martyrdom of an Army Major and a soldier in an Improvised Explosive Device (IED) explosion along the Line of Control (LoC) in Rajouri district on Friday, the Governor said such acts demonstrate Pakistan's frustration.
"Frustrated Sallahuddin (Supremo of Hizbul Mujahideen in Pakistan-occupied Kashmir) asked terrorists to do something but they failed as the forces with the help of people, who are supporting us, foiled their plans. There is complete peace in the valley," he said.

On the resignation of IAS officer Shah Faesal and his plan to join politics, the governor said had Faesal continued in government service it would have been good as he had taken the oath of service. However, the governor wished Faesal well.

According to an official spokesperson, the Governor later said that Shah Faesal was an efficient and dedicated officer who rendered his services with great zeal and enthusiasm for the welfare of the state and its people particularly belonging to weaker sections of the society. In case he would continue his services as an IAS officer he could serve the people of society in a better way. As far as his feelings about Kashmiris are concerned he could be posted in the region for extending his fullest support in ameliorating the poverty and creating job opportunities for the youth of the valley so that people would be prosperous and would lead a better life.
Terming the decision to join politics by Shah Faesal as his personal, Governor observed he could have done better even otherwise. He (Shah Faesal) has to consult the youth to know their aspirations and try to create a new platform for the redressal of problems and grievances of youth.
Governor said Dr. Shah Faesal could deliver better as an officer rather than as a politician.
He, however, observed that it is not necessary for him to suggest Shah Faesal what he has to do in future even though his

NEW DELHI: Hitting out at Congress, National Conference (NC) and other parties, which are accusing BJP of trying to delay the Assembly elections in Jammu and Kashmir, Union Minister of State (Independent Charge) Development of North Eastern Region (DoNER) and MoS PMO, Dr Jitendra Singh said here on Saturday that BJP is one party which is ever-ready for any election at any time, while it is the others who hide behind the 'boycott' call when they are unable to face the heat of election or find the timing of election unfavourable for them.

Speaking to media persons after the conclusion of the two-day BJP National Council meeting here, Dr Jitendra Singh was commenting on Prime Minister Narendra Modi's valedictory address, in which the latter had referred to the boycott of the recently held Urban Local Body elections by certain political parties in Jammu and Kashmir. It is strange, said Dr Jitendra Singh that the leaders

Country has to decide what kind of 'Pradhan Sevak' it wants: Modi

■ AGENCY
NEW DELHI: Launching his campaign to return to power, Prime Minister Narendra Modi on Saturday said the country has to choose its next "Pradhan Sevak" between an honest man working hard, and those who are on vacation when needed at home and are corrupt.
In the concluding address at the BJP national convention, Modi was unsparing in attacking his rivals, especially the Congress, saying they are joining hands as they want a "Majboor" (helpless) government to do corruption while people want a "Majboot" (strong) government that the only BJP can give.

He ridiculed the likely grand alliance of opposition parties as a "failed experiment in Indian politics", saying a campaign to give publicity to this idea is on.
The fear of "Chowkidar" (watchman), a reference like 'Pradhan Sevak' he often uses to describe himself, and his campaign against black money and corruption have led to a churn in politics, he said.
Rivals are uniting against one person, he said.

Modi's remarks came on a day the Samajwadi Party and the BSP, bitter rivals for over two decades, announced in Lucknow their alliance for the Lok Sabha elections against the saffron party.
In his over 80-minute-long speech, the Prime Minister spoke at length about his development agenda, made a brief mention of the Ram Temple issue blaming the Congress for delaying its resolution and projected his rivals as "corrupt" against his government's "spotless" record in office.
He claimed that for the first time in the country's history, there has not been any charge of

Two terrorists killed in encounter with security forces

■ STATE TIMES NEWS
SRINAGAR: Two terrorists were on Saturday killed in an encounter with security forces in Jammu and Kashmir's Kulgam district, police said.
Security forces launched a cordon and search operation in Katpora area in south Kashmir's Kulgam district this evening after receiving specific information about the presence of terrorists there, a police official said.
As the forces were conducting the searches, the terrorists fired upon them. The forces retaliated, ensuing an encounter in which two terrorists were killed, he said.
Arms and ammunition were recovered from the encounter site, the official said, adding that no collateral damage has been reported.

If voted to power, NC will establish commission to probe killings in J&K: Farooq

■ STATE TIMES NEWS
SRINAGAR: National Conference (NC) President Farooq Abdullah on Saturday said if his party is elected to power with a majority in the upcoming Assembly elections, it would establish a Truth and Reconciliation Commission to probe killings in Jammu and Kashmir.
He also asserted that Kashmir is fundamentally a political problem and only reconciliation and dialogue within the state as well as with Pakistan can afford a way forward.

Farooq Abdullah, a member of Parliament from Srinagar Lok Sabha Constituency, was speaking to reporters on the sidelines of a party function in Anantnag District of south Kashmir.

He said his son and NC Vice President Omar Abdullah had already spoken about the need to establish a Truth and Reconciliation Commission in the state. "He (Omar) has already asked for it. We hope that God brings our

Hundreds of stranded passenger vehicles cleared despite snowfall

■ STATE TIMES NEWS
BANIHAL: Over 500 passenger vehicles were cleared on Saturday despite snowfall which disrupted traffic on the Jammu-Srinagar National Highway, the only all-weather road linking Kashmir with rest of the country, officials said.
The traffic on the 270-km highway was suspended around 11:00 AM as a precautionary measure due to slippery conditions between Shaitani Nallah and Verinag zig, leaving hundreds of Srinagar-bound vehicles stranded, the Deputy Superintendent of Police, Traffic National Highway, Pardeep Singh Sen, told PTI.

However, over 500 passenger vehicles which were left stranded between Banihal and Ramban were allowed to move towards Srinagar later in the day after authorities pressed men and machines to clear the snow which had accumulated on the ground around Jawahar Tunnel the gateway to Kashmir Valley.
