STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: Dance teaches the importance of movement and fitness in a variety of ways through a variety of disciplines. As well, students learn to coordinate with each other while performing.

With the aim of honing the dancing skills of the students, Deepthi Joshi, the School Co-ordinator on Wednesday organised an Inter-House Dance Competition based on International Dance Forms, for the students of classes VI-VIII, in the school premises, where students from all the four houses participated with verve.

Shashi Choudhary, Director JK Educational Society, S.K Singh, Principal, JKPS Kunjwani and other dignitaries were also present. The competition was to reveal another milestone of an accomplishment in the history of JKPS.

The vivacious dancers were dressed up in colourful costumes twirled around and they set the stage on fire with their energetic performances.

The fun filled extravaganza offered Hip Hop, Contemporary, Salsa and Classical. Tilak House showcased Hip Hop Dance. They spell bounded the audience with their astounding performance.

Radhakrishnan House performed on Salsa which is a popular form of social dance that originated from Caribbean Folk Dance and is the hidden language of soul; dance of robust. The performers enthralled everyone with their expressive dance.

Tagore House flabbergasted the gathering by showcasing the Classical Dance form.

Bhagat Singh House presented Contemporary Dance depicting father-daughter relationship which moved the audience with emotions.

The spectators bore witness to the enthusiasm and energy of the young JKIANS as they enthralled everyone with their performances.

In the closely contested competition, Tagore House clinched first position under the guidance of Yashu Jain, Bhagat Singh House bagged the second prize under the supervision of Pooja Nehru and third position was won by Radhakrishnan House under the guidance of Gagandeep. A consolation prize was won by Tilak House under the guidance of Madhu.

All the four houses not only performed wonderfully but this dance competition imbued the spirit of teamwork amongst all the students.

S.K Singh gave heartiest congratulation to all the participants. He applauded the endless efforts of the dance teachers and hard work of the students to make this competition a success. He also said that dance is one of the most divine forms of art and is actually a way of expressing an individual's feelings.

Singh encouraged the students to participate more in such competitions to enhance their talent.

JK Public School Panjtirthi celebrates Mothers' Day

Glimpses of Mother's Day celebration being held at JK Public School Panjtirthi.

STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: Mother's Day, the day that recognises the essence of a mother and acknowledges the value of motherhood was celebrated in high spirits and merriment at JK Public School Panjtirthi.

The day started with crowning ceremony of the Principal of JKPS Panjtirthi, Suman Banbah. Heartwarming feeling filled the air with intimacy, gratitude, appreciation, acknowledgement and love.

Sunita Kapoor, the oldest and eldest member on behalf of teaching fraternity honoured the Principal by crowning her.

The council members of JKPS Panjtirthi felicitated their Principal through the medium of presenting flowers.

It was really a pleasure to watch the tiniest toddler of JKPS, Navya Sharma of class Nursery, who was looking like angel came running to hug and embrace the principal. The principal bestowed the blessings and love upon the Jakians and staff members.

Jakians intensely and devotedly spoke about their mother and teachers. They passionately got involved in felicitating the teachers of JKPS. The outcome of their efforts was marvelous.

Jakians proudly echoed and enchanted the quote- "Mother will be our door to paradise so let us love, respect and take care of our Mothers every day."

It was an enjoyable and memorable day for each and every child which left an indelible mark on the innocent hearts.
